

PERMISSION TO DISTRIBUTE TRANSCRIPT DATA
THROUGH TALKBANK
Carnegie Mellon University

Carnegie Mellon University is participating in a data-sharing program known as TalkBank that was established through federal and foundation grants. For the program to function properly, contributors will be asked to and will give permission for their work to be made available to other researchers. With a full understanding of the aforementioned, I hereby give permission to TalkBank to make and circulate electronic copies of the language transcripts and media that I describe below. These copies may be made available to scholars and other responsible parties in accord with the specific options that I select below. I warrant that this use of the data is in accord with Human Subjects review procedures at my institution. I also warrant that there is no copyright restriction over the transcripts and media being circulated. Any further restrictions that I wish to place on the use of these data are listed under (2) below. I indemnify and render harmless Brian MacWhinney, TalkBank, and Carnegie Mellon University against any actions arising from violations of these restrictions over which they had no control, such as Internet security breaches or failures of users to abide by the stated usage policies.

1. General description of the data set and IRB # (if available):
